Appellant, an attorney who seeks to represent himself in this appeal, is a member of the Virginia bar in good standing. As an attorney seeking to appear in this Court, he has moved for waiver of the requirement that he seek either full or pro hac vice admission to this Court's bar in order to appear on his own behalf. He also asks the Court to "reverse the default dismissal" of his appeal for failure to cure the defect in his filing Forms C and D without having sought admission to the Court's bar and also requests that the Court direct the Clerk to accept his filings as a non-lawyer pro se litigant.

Upon due consideration, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motion is denied in all respects. LR 46.1. Appellant is directed to apply for full admission or move for pro hac vice admission to the bar of this Court within ten days of the date of this order. The order dismissing the appeal on default is amended to extend the effective date of the dismissal to July 1, 2020.
